

Wisconsin International
Resource Consortium
INSTITUTE FOR REGIONAL AND INTERNATIONAL STUDIES
UNIVERSITY OF WISCONSIN-MADISON

International Children's Literature Celebration: Folk and Fairy Tales December 2, 2023

Workshop Schedule (times subject to change)

Start Time	Speaker/s	Description/Notes
8:30-10:30am		Refreshments: sliced fruit and coffee/tea/water
9:00am		Ice Breaker Activity
9:30	Dr. Melissa Sheedy	Dr. Sheedy will discuss the "origins" of fairytales and oral storytelling cultures, talk about the Grimms and give credit where credit is due (particularly to the women storytellers who supported the Grimms financially and creatively), and explore the concept of transculturalism. She will also provide some concrete teaching ideas and strategies for incorporating fairytales into classrooms at all levels, including language classes.
11:30	Rochelle Hassan	Author presentation: The Buried and the Bound
12:15pm	NA	LUNCH
1:15	Essie Lenchner	Kahoot! activity
1:30	Karla Valenti	Author presentation: Lotería
2:15	Lori M. Lee	Author presentation: Pahua and the Soul Stealer
3:00	All authors	Moderated Author Panel
3:30		Closeout activity
4:00pm		Book Signing & Evaluations

Wisconsin International
Resource Consortium
INSTITUTE FOR REGIONAL AND INTERNATIONAL STUDIES
UNIVERSITY OF WISCONSIN-MADISON

Today's Menu

Breakfast – served until 10:30am

Sliced fruit, coffee, tea, and water

Lunch – served at 12:15pm

Romaine salad with Parmesan cheese, pepperoncini, broccoli, grape tomatoes, croutons, julienne red onions, black olives, and balsamic vinaigrette dressing

Chicken Marsala with mushrooms and marsala sauce

Italian sausage with peppers, onions, and marinara sauce

Cheese Tortellini with pesto and fontina cheese

Garlic roasted zucchini and onions

Ciabatta Rolls*

*Gluten-free bread will be available as an alternative to the ciabatta

We have a limited number of gluten-free, vegan meals available. These will be offered on a first-come basis. Please see Andrea Fowler for information.

Afternoon – served at 2:30pm

Chocolate-covered strawberries, coffee and tea